Art on the Atlanta BeltLine, in collaboration with the National Black Arts Festival, ARTlanta Gallery, and The Bakery, presents the A.M.F.M. Festival! Located in the Adair Park, Oakland City, and Capitol View neighborhoods, the inaugural festival is taking over The Bakery on the Westside Trail for four days of events celebrating Art, Movement, Film, and Music.

The schedule will include art exhibitions, interactive installations, demonstrations, artist markets, health and wellness pop-ups, musical acts, film screenings, keynote speaker, food trucks, and a "BeltLine After Dark" adults-only concert series. Everything is free and open to the public!

Festival hours are from 12:00 PM to 11:00 PM each day.

ABOUT ART ON THE ATLANTA BELTLINE

Art on the Atlanta BeltLine is the largest temporary outdoor art exhibition in the south that is completely free to the public. Spanning seven miles of trail on the east and west sides of Atlanta, Art on the Atlanta BeltLine strives to make a variety of art forms accessible to all, including: sculpture, murals, dance, music, theater, photography, fashion, film, and more.

Now in its ninth year, Art on the Atlanta BeltLine is taking a new approach to the exhibition with the AMFM Festival, expanded focus areas, brand new events, and a year-long temporary exhibition.
