SOUTHEAST WOODLANDS STICKBALL SUMMIT

Historic Fourth Ward Activity Park

10:30 am: Opening Ceremony Dr. Monte Randall (Muscogee Nation)

10:45 am - 3:00 pm: Play Ball

Follow the history of the game through play and learn about the evolution of the game through the different styles: Cherokee, Choctaw, and Chickasaw.

The Carlos Museum at Emory University

7:00 pm: Panel

Conversation with Addison Karl (Chickasaw/Choctaw), Dr. Monte Randall (Muscogee Nation), Casey Bigpond (Choctaw), Tosh Welch (Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians) and Ace Greenwood (Chickasaw/ Cherokee) moderated by Dr. Natalie Welch (Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians)

art.beltline.org/stickball

Saturday October 15, 2022

PRESENTED BY

ATLANTA BELTLIN

EMORY

CARLOS

MUSEUM

SOUTHEAST WOODLANDS STICKBALL SUMMIT

For the first time in over 200 years, Indigenous Stickball will be played by native nations on traditional Muscogee Land in the heart of Atlanta. Organized by Chickasaw and Choctaw member, Addison Karl, in collaboration with Atlanta BeltLine, Inc. and Emory University, the Southeast Woodlands Stickball Summit will showcase the history and future of the game to the public.

Panel

0

0

0

6

0

0

MODERATOR Dr. Natalie M. Welch, Ph.D. Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians Sports Medicine Scientist and creator of "She Carries On /R みB かのもの ハア D.&P+ のの ハト"

 \bigcirc

Casey Bigpond Choctaw Artist, singer, traditionalist and lifelong ball player

Addison Karl Chicksaw/Choctaw

0

6

6

0

6

0 oddison Kor

0

Artist, creator of the Itti' Kapochcha To'li' sculpture

Ace Greenwood Chickasaw/ Cherokee

Coach, teacher, and player

Dr. Monte Randall Muscogee Nation

0

B

Tosh Welch Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians Educator and ball player

404.477.3636 mkyle@atlbeltline.org art.beltline.org

art.beltline.org/stickball

0